

The Town Dock has a great opportunity for an experienced and ambitious sales professional.

We are seeking a qualified candidate with wholesale seafood sales experience. Candidate should have experience selling frozen seafood to foodservice distributors, restaurant chains, or retail supermarket chains. Experience selling frozen squid (calamari) a plus.

This function will be primarily responsible for prospecting and growing a customer base. Candidates that possess existing customer account relationship a plus. Some traveling and food show preparation is required.

The ideal candidate should have at least 5 years experience in seafood sales. Compensation package will be dependent on experience and existing customer base. We offer a benefit package including paid vacation, sick time, group health insurance, dental, 401K plan and more. Telecommuting from a remote location, or working in-house at our facility are both possible.